OFFICIAL.

President of the United States of A. A PROCLAMATION.

It has pleased Almighty God to hearkan the appplications and prayers of an afflicted people, and to voucheafe to the army and the navy of the Daited States victories on the land and ble grounds for augmented con ndence that the Union of these States will be maintained, their Constitution preserved, and their person and prosper ty permanently reout sacrifices of life, limb, health, and the country follows in the train of these fearful ents. It is meet and right to recognize and confess the presence of the Abaighty Father and the power of His hand equally in

Now, therefore, be it known, that I do so apart Thursday, the sixth day of August next. to be observed as a day for National Thanks giving Praise and Prayer, and I invite the on in their customary places of worship, and in the forms approved by their own consciences, render the homege due to the Divine Majorty for the wonderful things He has done on's behalf, and invoke the influenc of His Holy Spirit to subdue the anger which ed and so long sustained a needless rebellion, to change the hearts of the insurgents, to guide the counsels of the Govcrousent with wisdom adequate to so great a national emergency, and to visit with tender on throughout the length and cadth of our land all those who, through the ricitaltudes of marches, voyages, battles, and sieges, have been brought to suffer in mind, body, or estate, and finally to lead the whole nation, through the paths of repentance and salon to the Divine will, back to the per-feet enjoyment of Union and fraternal peace. in witness whereof I have bereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

The Lieutenant, who was about the centre of his company and on the opposite side from the Doctor, gave the command, "Halt," and started to pass around the front of his company to where the Doctor stood. While doing so the Doctor, unserestived by the Lieutenant, draw a Colt's revolver from his pocket and placed file hands behind him. The Lieutenant dispatched an orderly for the provose guard and advanced opposite the Doctor, and said, "I am an officer of the United States army, consider yourself under arrest." The Doctor presented his pistol, and standing within four feet of the Lieutenant fired two shots in rapid succession; the first ball passed through the Lieutenant whand, the second entered the left shoulder, passed through the Lieutenant rushed upon the Doctor after the second shot mad bore him hack into the store, where he sank to the sloor, the bleed pouring from his mouth and nose, and immediately expired.
